

HIS EXCELLENCY, THE RIGHT HONOURABLE PRIME MINISTER'S VISIT TO THE MINISTRY OF JUSTICE AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS

His Excellency, Right Honourable Prime Minister, Mr. Ambrose Mandvulo Dlamini in his quest to familiarize himself with Government Operations visited the Ministry where he met with the departments' heads on the 24th January 2019.

This was one of many other visits the premier has made since he came into office. Key among amongst his message is the need to turn the state of the economy around. The premier encouraged the team to continue to be productive and match the performance of the Private sector, he said this is one of the good ways the economy can improve. Dlamini stressed that the reason the economy was in decline was due to the fact that the private sector has not expanded or performed well to create sufficient jobs, making Government the main employer.

Ideally, the Private Sector has to employ more people than the Government. To address this, the Government is in the process of putting in place measures that will make the environment conducive to attract foreign direct investments, by enacting Laws that will make it easy for investors to do business in Eswatini.

Welcoming the Prime Minister was the Justice and Constitutional Affairs Minister Pholile Shakantu said our aim will be on building capacity in all departments under the Ministry especially infrastructure so as to improve service delivery. She appreciated that the PM took his time to visit the ministry and see its operations.

Heads of departments present during the visit were the Principal Secretary - Lorraine Hlophe, the Under Secretary - Gugu Nsibande, Attorney General-Sifiso Khumalo, Director of Public Prosecutions-Sandile Dlamini, Commissioner Anti-Corruption Commission-Daniel Dlamini, Commissioner General HMCS-Mzuthini Ntshangase, Head of Secretariat EBC-Richard Phungwayo, and Executive Secretary Human Rights Commission-Linda Nxumalo.

His Excellency, the Right Honourable Prime Minister also gave assurance that his office will do everything possible to support the Ministry.
